DSAT KEY PRIORITY: Educating for equality: equality action plan 2022/24

Improvement Priority 3	To ensure equality objectives thread through the culture, ethos and curriculum of our school embedding anti-racism and gender equality in our school.
Success Criteria:	 We will know we have engineered success when Leadership at all levels understand their role and contribution to equality We have a more accurate self-evaluation as a school of where we are at on the journey towards anti-racism and gender equality. We have identified areas for staff CPD and have a plan in place to develop their understanding of anti-racism and gender equality. Recruitment procedures, policies and procedures are reviewed to allow for unconscious bias and to reduce the opportunities for bias in relation to anti-racism and gender equality.

Objectives	Lead Person	Milestones	Time scale	Monitoring and Evaluation
				What	By whom	When	Outcome
1.To provide a framework and benchmark of the school's journey towards an anti-racism and gender equality culture in school.	НТ	 Begin the process of achieving stage one of the Educating for Equality Mark. The Educating for Equality Mark is made known to children, staff and the wider school community. An audit is carried out to identify areas to develop and improve. The school community understand with precision which aspects need to improve. There is a shared understanding of the need for improving equality for children's education, well-being, school improvement, social justice and global citizenship. Staff CPD: Staff receive training focused on equality education and good practice. Teaching, Learning, Curriculum and Resources: Curriculum planning and resources are reviewed to ensure that an anti-racist, gender equal approach 	End of the 2023 year	Progress with award	НТ	Termly	The school achieves the Allegiance Award (stage one Educating for Equality Award). An audit has identified areas of provision and procedures which need to change in order to embed an anti-racist and gender equal community.

2.To support senior leaders to 'catch the vision' towards an anti-racist and gender equal culture in school.		equality in our school.		Evaluate impact of CPD termly	HT		Senior leaders have improved knowledge of the key areas outlined in training modules.
		 Training includes an increased understanding of the role of leaders in embedding an equality culture an overview of the research developments in the field an understanding of the relevant terms and definitions an understanding of how to plan effective staff CPD understanding the difference between diversifying and decolonising the curriculum an understanding of how to critically evaluate commonly used resources and texts practised empathetic listening unconscious bias the impact of anti-racism and gender equality policies on mental health and well-being of pupils and staff and on recruitment. 					This knowledge impacts on daily practices, policies, procedures, curriculum. Leaders 'catch the vision' for an improved culture of anti-racism and gender equality.
3.To embed an anti-racist and gender equal approach to the curriculum.	HT/ Curricul um lead	Training for all staff to include:	End of the 2023/24 academic year	Evaluate the impact termly	HT Curriculum lead	Terriny	A culture of inclusion and justice is built. Curriculum planning addresses injustices Staff are equipped to play their part in the journey towards an anti-racist and gender equal school community